St. Louis Fans Turned Out to Welcome Him-Wild Pitch by Patten Caused the Trouble.

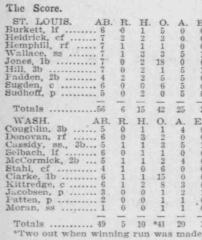

St. Louis, 6; Washington, 5. As usual, it was a hard game to lose, but the Senators had to keep up the The Browns had to battle hard for fourteen innings before they came out ahead, thanks to the strong southpaw wing of Case Patten. With a man on first and third, and only one run needed to win the game, Case let fly a shoot that wended its way skyward un-til it passed over Kittredge's head, and Hemphill cantered home with the run

Donovan Popular.

To prove Patsy Donovan's popularity in the Mound City, 21,000 persons turned out to witness the game, and they were amply repaid for the price of admission, as the game was close and interesting at all times, and the fielding ex-Bill Coughlin could not agree with sportsmen thought it their duty to award the first meet to Baltimore. A meeting of the Baltimore Road Drivers' Association was held in the Monumental City on Friday, the date set and the preliminary arrangements made. These have met with the approval of those in charge of the Washington end and the Baltimoreans have been notified to that effect.

Twelve Entries Already.

Already Ben McCaully, who is engineering the Washington end, has received assurances that twelve persons will enter their horses, and this number will probably be increased four-fold as the entry list will not close for month.

The local Road Drivers' and Riders' association has been asked to name the lasses in which it would like to comete. Those selected by the Washington delegation are the 2:18 trot, the 2:30 pace, and the 2:25 pace. These will be forwarded for the approval of the Baltimore people.

NEW YORK, May 6.-That American riflemen may not rest under even a technical imputation of unsportsmanlike con duct the executive committee of the American Rifle Association may offer to restore the Palma trophy to the British association, agreeing that the match at Besley, England, last July, shall be

As already pointed out, nowhere in this country does anyone believe that the American team was guilty of unfairness or even sharp practice. Published cable dispatches show that even in Eng and is this belief growing, but there has been a charge made, and it could be met in no better way than to have the same teams meet under similar conditions There is no fear as to the result.

Gen. Bird W. Spencer, president of the American association, is of the opinion that a restoration of the trophy would be the best way out of it, and he has called a meeting of the executive committee, of which he is ex officio chairwith all the members he will set a date which he hopes will be within the next

"I am speaking for myself alone, of purse," said General Spencer yester-ay, "but I am in favor of giving back the trophy rather than have the least ill-feeling arise from our victory. The Four-Eye League has started off with a rush and promises to be one of the most successful of the amateur organizations in the city.

It was originally intended to have it a four-club league, but recently it was decided to admit the Western Buds and have five nines to battle for the pennant. Among the players will be found some of the best of the younger talent in the city, and the games put up by the league should be highly interesting. The proposition of getting the amateur teams together to form leagues has met with general approval and several meetings with that end in view have been called.
